

with out the do not call list I always screened our call through our answering machine. Because of the do not call list I can answer the phone and be greatful to hear a friend or family member on the other end, and not someone that is going to offer me a so call free trip. Do not take away our ability to sit down at dinner time and not be bugged by someone trying to make a dollar.